The Preparation for Admonishing One Another

A. Properly Motivated Admonition "full of goodness"

B. Divinely Informed Admonition "filled with knowledge"

C. Spirit-empowered Admonition "competent to admonish"

The Purpose of Admonishing One Another

B. The Growth of the Church Family Ephesians 4:15-16

C. The Glory of God......Colossians 3:16-17

Live It!

- Be filled with the Spirit. Confess sin and submit to the Spirit.
- Go to God's Word so that you know what to say.
- Pray for opportunity (God's time) to speak the truth in love.
- Trust the Holy Spirit.

Serve One: Becoming an Instrument of Grace

"Admonish One Another" Romans 15:14 Sunday, October 14, 2018

I myself am convinced, my brothers and sisters, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with knowledge and competent to instruct (admonish) one another.

Romans 15:14 (NIV)

Sermon Proposition

We are called to practice admonishing each other as Spiritempowered instruments of grace for three divine purposes.

The Practice of Admonishing One Another