

Open It

What were or are the consequences your parents impose on you for disobedience?

Consider It

What knowledge did man and woman gain eating the fruit of the knowledge of good and evil (Genesis 3:7-9)?

Why didn't man and woman die after eating the fruit (Genesis 2:16-17)?

How does sin (disobedience) affect man and woman's relationship with God?

What are the other consequences of sin? How are our lives today affected by Adam's sin or our own disobedience?

What are God's words to the serpent, woman and man?

What evidence do you see of in God's words and actions of His steadfast love, mercy or gifts of grace?

Live It

Pray Psalm 139:23-24

Heavenly Father, examine me and know my heart; test me, and know my anxious thoughts. See if there any hurtful way in me, and lead me in the everlasting way.

What sin is adding to your trouble? Harming your relationship with God, your spouse or another?

Sermon Text

Genesis 3:8-24 (NIV)

Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the Lord God as he was walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and they hid from the Lord God among the trees of the garden. <sup>9</sup> But the Lord God called to the man, "Where are you?" <sup>10</sup> He answered, "I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid." <sup>11</sup> And he said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?" <sup>12</sup> The man said, "The woman you put here with me—she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it." <sup>13</sup> Then the Lord God said to the woman, "What is this you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate." <sup>14</sup> So the Lord God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, "Cursed are you above all livestock and all wild animals! You will crawl on your belly and you will eat dust all the days of your life. <sup>15</sup> And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel." <sup>16</sup> To the woman he said, "I will make your pains in childbearing very severe; with painful labor you will give birth to children. Your desire will be for your husband, and he will rule over you." <sup>17</sup> To Adam he said, "Because you listened to your wife and ate fruit from the tree about which I commanded you, 'You must not eat from it,' "Cursed is the ground because of you; through painful toil you will eat food from it all the days of your life. <sup>18</sup> It will produce thorns and thistles for you, and you will eat the plants of the field. <sup>19</sup> By the sweat of your brow you will eat your food until you return to the ground, since from it you were taken; for dust you are and to dust you will return." <sup>20</sup> Adam named his wife Eve, because she would become the mother of all the living. <sup>21</sup> The Lord God made garments of skin for Adam and his wife and clothed them. <sup>22</sup> And the Lord God said, "The man has now become like one of us, knowing good and evil. He must not be allowed to reach out his hand and take also from the tree of life and eat, and live forever." <sup>23</sup> So the Lord God banished him from the Garden of Eden to work the ground from which he had been taken. <sup>24</sup> After he drove the man out, he placed on the east side of the Garden of Eden cherubim and a flaming sword flashing back and forth to guard the way to the tree of life.
