

Discussion Questions for Families and Groups

Open It!

Imagine that you have 24 hours to live. You have time to accomplish one thing on your bucket list. How will you spend your last twenty-four hours?

Read It!

Read First Peter 4:1-11

Study It!

What difference should our unbelieving neighbors, family members, coworkers or friends observe by our lives (4:1-6)?

What responses or reactions do we experience from non-Christians? How do they compare to what Peter observes (4:4)?

What are the ways we can express love for each other (4:7-11)?

- 4:7
- 4:8
- 4:9
- 4:10
- 4:11

How does love cover a multitude of sins (4:8; 1 Cor 13:4-7)?

In what ways might we express love for each other during the coronavirus pandemic?

Live It!

What do you need to say, "No" to in order to say, "Yes" to God?

What does "living for God" require of you today?

What does "loving each other" call you to do this week?

Studies in First Peter

You're On The Clock

1 Peter 4:1-11

September 12 & 13, 2020

Sermon Proposition

The clock is running. Make the most of your time!

You can make the most of your time by living for God.

1 Peter 4:1-6

You can make the most of your time by loving each other.

1 Peter 4:7-11