THE LORD IS JUDGE JEHOSHAPHAT

Responding to Correction
2 Chronicles 19:1-11

Sermon Proposition

You should follow Jehoshaphat's example in responding to divine correction. Jehoshaphat responded to God's correction in four ways.

By Accepting the Word of God

By Returning to the Ways of God

By Advancing the Work of God

By Warning the People of God

Next Steps!

Heeding Correction

Is there a word of correction that you are ignoring or resisting?
It's time to accept it and correct it.

Speaking Truth in Love

Is there someone that needs to hear a corrective word?
Seek God's face for the word, the courage, the compassion and opportunity to speak the truth in love.

Guiding Words

2 Timothy 3:16-17

Ephesians 4:15

Galatians 6:1

Open It!

If you could serve the cause of justice in a courtroom what role would you like to have (judge, jury, prosecutor, defense attorney, bailiff, or court recorder)? And, Why?

Read It!

2 Chronicles 19:1-11

Consider It!

What did Jehoshaphat do to promote justice in Judah (19:4-11)?

What are the qualities of a good judge (19:6-7, 9)?

What did Jehoshaphat do differently in Jerusalem to promote justice (19:8-10)?

What warning was to be given to God's people (19:9)?

How did the role of Amariah the chief priest differ from the role of Zebadiah the governor of Judah (19:11)?

What evidence do you see that Jehoshaphat understood that LORD is Judge in this passage?

- v.6
- v.7
- v.9
- v.10
- v.11

How should disputes between believers be handled today (1 Corinthians 6:1-11)?

Who needs justice with mercy? Why?
